It's Time to MOVE

Methods are many, Principles are few;
Methods may vary but Principles never do

How's your relationship with God?

How's your relationship with God?

How do you respond when God's answer seems obscured?

Isaiah 55:8-9 ESV

For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
