If living today has an impact on our eternity, How Then Shall We Live?

2 Corinthians 4:18 NIV

¹⁸ So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

John 10:10 ESV

¹⁰ The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.

How can we live eternally and not temporally, with confidence, clarity, and hope?

Romans 8:31-35 ESV

³¹ What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? ³³ Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

How Then Shall We Live?

We live life today, having the confidence that God loves us for eternity.

John 3:16 ESV

¹⁶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

The death and resurrection of Jesus promised eternal life to those who believed.

2 Corinthians 4:17-18 NIV

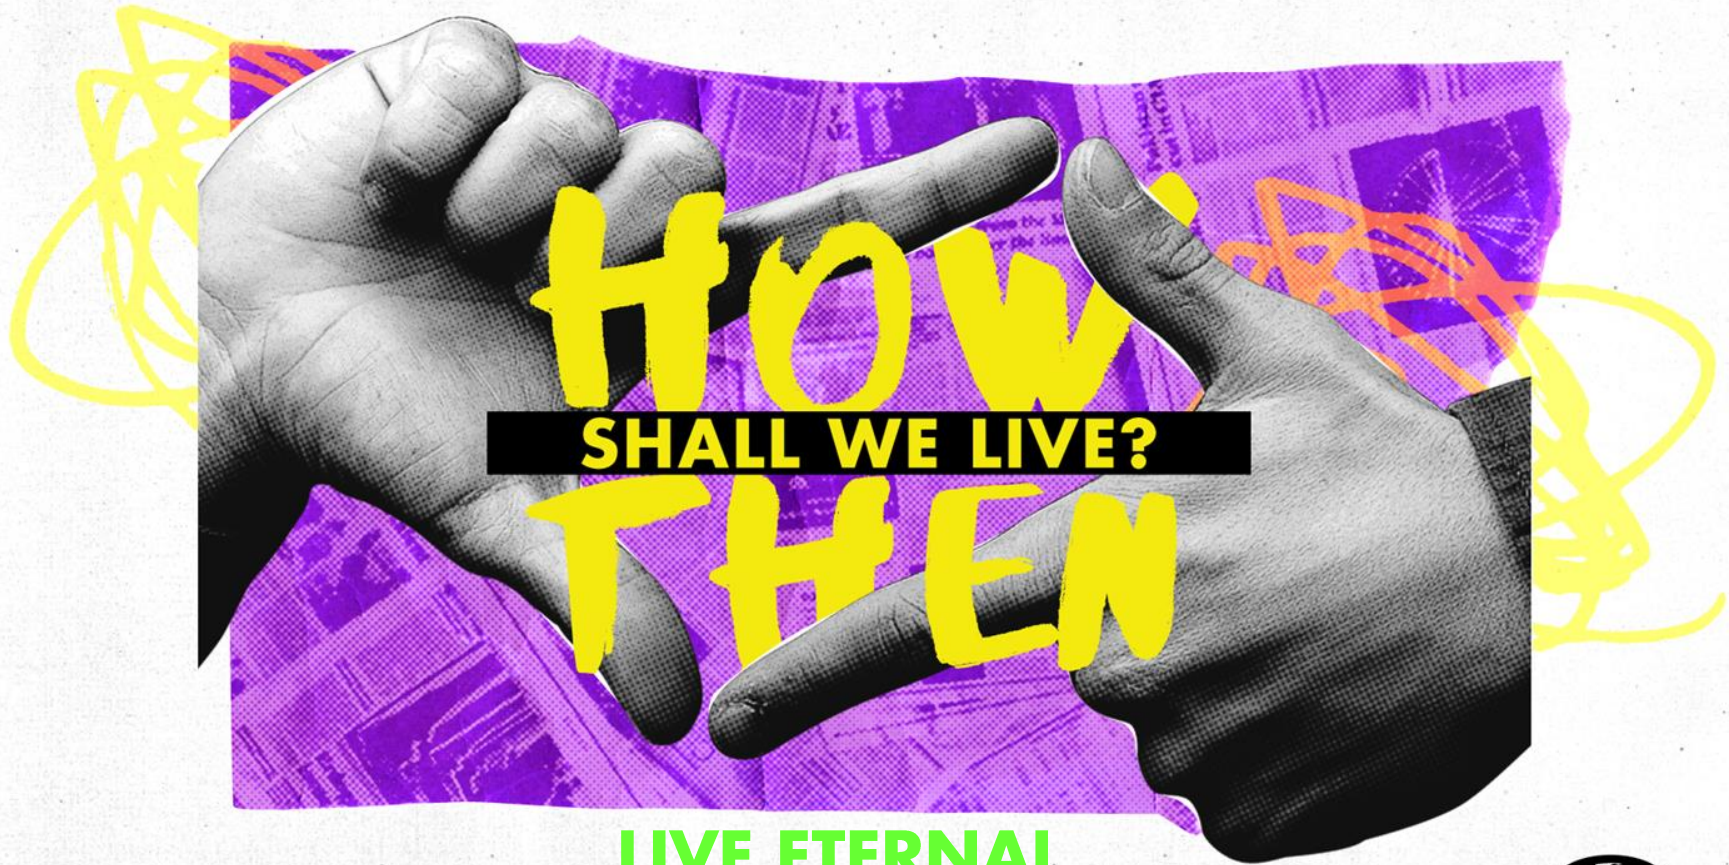

¹⁷ For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. ¹⁸ So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Prayer:

Dear Lord, I confess that I have sinned, and I thank you, Lord, that You died on the cross for my sins. I repent of my sins, and I pray for Your forgiveness, and receive You as my Lord and Saviour. I thank you for the eternal life that I now have. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.
